GOD IS LOVE AND NOTHING ELSE.

PRAISE THE LORD.

LETTER FROM GEORGE O. BARNES

PENSACOLA, APRIL 6, 1888.

DEAR INTERIOR:—"Capt. Jack" and the good yacht-sloop, "Phantom," were put in requisition yesterday, to convey a dozen of us "whithersoever we listed." There were representatives from Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin and Kentucky in the little party and we got along quite pleasantly, considering our native and ingrained unlikeliness. I suppose that a whole generation and a good deal of christianity will be required to produce that desired harmony of the sections, when it will not require an effort, more or less, for them to affiliate with us; and we with them. When this effort is conscientiously made, however, and educational training is overcome, we find that there is "pretty much of a muchness" between us. But will this welcome educational repulsion ever, wholly, disappear, on earth? Let us hope it. If not, "In Heaven above, where all is LOVE, There'll be no friction there."

"Capt. Jack" ran us down the glorious bay in first-rate style; heading a rival sloop at starting, which, trying to pass us, by an unseamanlike tack, ran afoul of the bowsprit of one of the vessels anchored at the wharf, and smashed her "gaff," or the upper spar of her main-sail. She presented a very limping and fallen appearance, and I felt right sorry for her crew, as we, victorious, left her behind, and sped on our course. A clear run of eight or ten miles brought us to the harbor's mouth, between forts Pickens and McRae. We wished to land at the latter and pick up some shells on that seldom-visited beach; but the wind was in the wrong quarter for landing, and the unmistakable swell of the great Gulf began to tell so decidedly on our little sloop that we gave "Capt. Jack" gracious permission to put his "helm up" and run us into quieter waters. A few minutes did this, before any of the party began to "turn green," or say "New York."

Then we ran over to Warrington for some raw oysters, for by this time the sea air had sharpened appetite; and a certain "hostelry," not to say "doggerly," at that place is famous for its oysters. One hundred and fifty bivalves barely sufficed for our voracious party of twelve; and more delicious ones I never ate. Our surroundings were inharmonious. Two "pool" tables in the room where we ate; in the next apartment a bar, with a formidable array of bottles and decanters; and the floor littered up with beer kegs and heaps of oysters in the shell waiting their turn to be devoured. Poor things! So helpless on land and in water. No legs or swift fins with which to escape capture; and even their jagged shells attacked and perforated by their particular parasitic enemies. The "destroyer" has agents innumerable to effect his fell purposes. Half the shells one picks up on the beach have a perfectly round hole bored in a particular part of the bivalve structure, showing where death, to the helpless inmate, entered; while unnumbered thousands bear the marks of attack, where the shell has been burrowed into and honey-combed by little voracious wretches, who have run their tiny galleries here and there, till a favorable spot gives entrance to the inner citadel, where the juicy and coveted bivalve makes his home. Then a wild sack and plunder of the captured fortress. Its richness is looted by a hungry horde of Lilliputian devourers, and the empty shell becomes the sport of old ocean; to be grated along the bottom and finally thrown on shore, to enrich the collection of some shell-gatherer of the land. Poor things! What have they done to be treated so? How clear it is that a devil destroyer is in their tracks, who hates them for living merely; and wreaks his spite upon the innocent without mercy. And to think that man's persistent unbelief gives him access to these helpless millions of "innocents," who ought to be protected and sheltered by his faith. That is the worst of it. When will men see that this "unpardonable sin" of unbelief opens Pandora's box and floods the world with wretchedness and woe? A father's unfaith brings misery untold on his helpless and innocent offspring; a husband's on a wife; a brother's on a gentle sister. This is hell's carnival—when the innocent suffer for the guilty. And Satan has crowned this cruel ordinance of his "kingdom of darkness," by getting men to believe and preachers to preach, that this is all the wise, Fatherly action of a good God, Who in some mysterious way has ordained all this devil's work for some possible good. "Doing evil that good may come." O, judicial stultification of the "blind leading the blind" and both heading for the same "ditch," fast! When will these fast-sealed eyes be opened?

But I am getting away from "Captain Jack" and the "Phantom" in thus moralizing over an oyster shell. We "stretched away," as sailors talk, across the bay and after a series of tacks, "brought up"—sea lingo again—at the life-saving station, where Uncle Samuel keeps seven stout men to help the castaways upon this part of the coast. The station is on a narrow part of Santa Rosa Island, where it is only a few hundred yards from the Bay across to the open Gulf. A nice house, with a look-out cupola above and everything needful for life saving in the large room below. The apparatus for snatching the ship-wrecked from a watery grave, consists of a fine life-boat, 20 feet long, nearly, and a "casket" that can be entirely closed and dragged through the surf, while the inmate is kept as "dry as a bone." This for invalids or children, who cannot be taken into the open boat. It is about 6 or 7 feet long, shaped like a fat cigar, with iron ring, for traction, at one end. Then on another wheeled vehicle are coils of rope and all the attachments of the small brass gun that will throw a cylindrical solid shot of iron, about 18 inches in length and 3 inches in diameter, for half a mile or more, with a strong twine attached to a ring in one end. This is thrown across the stranded vessel and her crew pull in the smaller string till a larger one and then a still stronger one in turn are brought in and made fast. This forms a line of connection between ship and shore, and over it is stout rope the crew escapes, one by one, in a sort of cradle that is drawn backwards and forwards.

Happily there has been no wreck at sea on this coast since the station was established, five years ago, and the letters upon every bit of Uncle Samuel's property hereaway might be deemed descriptive, by a little false pronunciation, U. S. L. S. S. (unlucky); but not so. The devil would be sure to manage a wreck on an unprotected spot of his special territory; and only refrains here, perhaps, because it is well-guarded. "Prevention is better than cure" all the world over.

We re-embarked on the "Phantom" and with a beautiful breeze on the "star-board quarter" (ahem! how nautical we are growing!) scudded away for home. Another perfect day, the dear Father gave us, to bring fresh health to the invalids and pleasure to us all. My attack at Cuba Station pulled me down to 158. Yesterday the scales marked 172½, my full weight, so you can see what the dear LORD has done for me, through sea air, "mixed with faith," as dear Paul pithily expresses it to the Hebrews. Praise His dear Name!

I notice the heathen suggestion, in one of your late issues, about "nerve stretching" for "sciatica." I know something "worth two of that," yes! a thousand of it. My theory, that will hold, when the "elements melt with fervent heat," abiding to the "ages of ages," is this: The devil can't do anything that the LORD can't undo. And I feel sure if the devil contracts the sciatic nerve, which he may; I don't understand the pathology of the case—the dear LORD can stretch it, in the pleasantest possible way. Certainly mine has been, painlessly, "stretched" in this Pensacola climate, so luxurious; and in this salt air so refreshing and health-giving. And it does one so much good to praise HIM and feel to the tips of one's fingers and toes, as well as in the bottom of one's heart, that HE has done it. That is better than healing. As it is written, "Thy loving kindness is better than life," even. A bis with your "nerve stretching." It almost sets my "sciatic" to aching to think of it. You meant it kindly, all the same, and I thank you for the trouble of prescribing. But I will have none of it.

We spend the afternoon at our good captain's, which we are sure the dear Master will make as enjoyable as the rest of this delightful Pensacola visit. But there will be no time to write it up to-night. We start, God willing, on the 6:50 A. M. train Saturday (to-morrow) and reach Mississippi City, Miss., between Mobile and New Orleans, Saturday P. M. about 3 o'clock.

Ever in Jesus, GEO. O. BARNES.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

Monday was our regular county court. Very little business was done in court.

The old rat-trap in front of the store-rooms of T. J. Canifax and Weaver & Faris is being taken down and a nice awning put up in its place.

The trial of John and Bill Stringer for shooting Johnson Chumley at Pittsburg came up again Monday before Judge Baker. They waived examination and gave bond in the sum of $300 each.

Uncle Whitten Faris was taken with a congestive chill Sunday and is still very low. Rev. J. C. Gill is out again, after a long spell of sickness. Mrs. J. C. Jackson is back from a visit to Kansas City, Mo. Mrs. Goggin and her daughter, of Kirksville, is stopping at Mrs. M. A. Faris'. Wm. Brown, of the Echo office, went to Jellico Wednesday. Fred Parsley is traveling in Tennessee for W. H. Jackson & Co.

Wednesday morning as a party of Swiss miners were on their way to Pittsburg, they met a man named Carter, who, without a word or provocation, drew his revolver and fired at one of them named Arnold, striking him in the heel, inflicting a very painful wound. Carter was arrested by W. M. Lovelace and Jailer Phelps and placed in jail to await his examining trial Friday.

CRAB ORCHARD.

—Mrs. W. F. Kennedy is sinking every day.

—Mr. George H. King has made his wife a present of an organ.

—We are soon to have another wedding, so Madam Rumor says.

—A large new sign ornaments the front of the Grover livery stable.

—Dr. Doores was called to Brodhead Monday to see Miss Susie Woodyard.

—Last week several parties from here went fishing and met with fisherman's luck.

—A number of persons here are indebted to Gov. McCreary for packages of garden seeds received.

—Miss Annie Stuart has our thanks for the April number of the Hamilton College Monthly.

—Mrs. W. T. Stephenson is president of the W. C. T. U. and the society meets at her house every Wednesday afternoon.

—Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Armendt are keeping house in her residence on Lancaster street. Mrs. A. is delighted to get back to C. O.

—A good many of our young people enjoyed another impromptu hop at the College Hall last Friday night.

—Thanks to Miss Laura Doores for those two lovely panels she painted for us. They are highly appreciated.

—We have not yet seen the new pulpit at the Christian church, but have heard that it is at last finished.

—Rev. M. C. Morgan preached at the Christian church Sunday morning and night and Rev. R. A. Hopper, of Lebanon, Wednesday night.

—The entertainment at the College Hall will take place on the night of the 20th, instead of the 13th, as stated in our letter to the Signal this week.

—J. W. James and J. F. Holdam are in Cincinnati, each buying a large stock of dry goods. The former for himself and the latter for G. W. James, who was not able to go. G. B. Harris is clerking in Mr. Holdam's absence.

—Mr. R. H. Bronaugh, still-house watch, has been returned here to his old stand, and Mr. R. R. Gentry, with whom he exchanged, has been sent back to the Traylor still-house. Mr. Gentry's departure is universally regretted, particularly by one sad heart.

—One lady, after reading the article in our last week's letter about the Sunday-school, asked why we did not remind the older members of the non-performance of their duty in letting so young a man as Mr. Holdam Stuart take the lead. The older members are sadly remiss in their duty to the school and a reminder of this is not at all out of place, in our humble judgment.

—Messrs. Frank Fox and A. E. Gibbons, of Danville, were in town Sunday. Mrs. Rhoda Higgins, of Greenwood, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. G. H. King. Mr. Will A. Brooks has gone to North Carolina to remain all summer. Mr. C. A. Smithers, of Vincennes, Ind., was here to see Miss Leila Doores several days ago. He certainly has an eye for the beautiful. Accompanied by Miss Laura Doores they visited Stanford and Lancaster while he was here. Mr. Joe Coffey and wife, of Danville, spent several days with Mrs. W. R. Dillion. Hon. Samuel Ward's son, Willie, who has been from home for several years, returned last week. Great was the rejoicing over the wanderer's return. Mrs. Sallie Hutchinson and her daughter, Bertha, who have been the guests of her father's family, Dr. Doores, for several months, left Tuesday for their home in Vilas, Col. Her many friends greatly regretted to see her leave. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Guest and Miss Lonnie, of Danville, have been visiting Mrs. Laura Moore. Miss Laura Doores is in the country with her sister, Mrs. Parish.

—Expert Accountant Grainger, who for four months has been examining the accounts of Treasurer Weir, of New Albany, finds that he is $70,000 short. Mr. Weir is still in New Albany and will stand back and see his bondsmen pay him out. It is whispered that he was engaged in margin speculations. He is a republican, of course.

—It is asserted that if the Direct Tax Bill, which is now on a deadlock in the House, becomes a law one lobbyist will secure a fee of $100,000. The democrats are holding out bravely against the passage of the bill.

Being More Pleasant

To the taste, more acceptable to the stomach, and more truly beneficial in its action, the famous California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, is rapidly superseding all others. Try it. One bottle will prove its merits.

For sale by A. R. Penny, Stanford.

Syrup of Figs

Is Nature's own true laxative. It is the most easily taken, and the most effective remedy known to cleanse the System when Bilious or Costive; to dispel Head-aches, Colds, and Fevers; to Cure Habitual Constipation, Indigestion, Piles, etc. Manufactured only by the California Fig Syrup Company, San Francisco, Cal.

For sale by A. R. Penny, Stanford.

HUSTONVILLE.

—Business is lively among the farmers. Traders are waiting for developments. Grass is responding beautifully to the genial weather. Gardens will receive close attention and there is a laudable purpose to stave off starvation as long as possible.

—Mrs. J. E. Huffman, of Liberty, is visiting old friends at her childhood's home. Miss Julia Bradley went to Harrodsburg Wednesday, to be with her aunt, Mrs. Soc Owens, in her afflictions. Jerry Adams is giving a smiling welcome to wayfarers as clerk at the Carpenter Hotel.

—Mr. Ben N. Allen returned Saturday from Texas, where spent the winter. He is not enthusiastic on the subject of Western emigration; gives a favorable report of Texas soil, but dislikes the climate, and especially the water. He has three grand objections to Kansas, stated thus: First, the people are nearly all radicals; second, they are infested by the Salvation Army; and third, they are being driven into anarchy by female suffrage. Mr. A. has decided, therefore, to spend his remaining days in Kentucky.

—Since Billy Wright's successful tussle with the C. S. R. R. there is a great disposition among our people to "take risks" on that blood-thirsty thoroughfare. In fact it is our only chance for easy living. The "home guards" were not permitted to aid the groaning nation to throw off the incubus of a surplus in the treasury; by drawing pensions, which they were always patriotically willing to do; bicycles are expensive and dangerous and pay no premiums on broken bones or unsightly contusions; and the easy positions have all been "accepted" long ago. Hence we look to railroad accidents for revenue.

HUBBLE.

—Marion Lane left for Ohio Saturday.

—S. Hubble bought a bay horse of G. T. Lawson for $60.

—Wallace Walter has resumed his former job with B. F. Engleman.

—B. F. Engleman is selling his entire stock of goods at cost in order to reduce it.

—Sidney Dunbar is about to rent his tobacco land to Mr. Yeager for hemp land.

—It is said that Gully on going from Engleman's went into the lumber and stove business.

—Collins Gentry, one of our former good citizens, late of Texas, died suddenly of hemorrhage of the lungs.

—Dr. Carroll Kendrick will preach at Rush Branch the 3d Sunday in April. He is from California and will be entertained by a good basket dinner on the grounds.

—Monday was the day set to try some of our boys, charged with disturbing worship at church. The boys all appeared to stand a trial, but owing to bad colds it was utterly impossible for some of the Commonwealth's witnesses to put in their appearance, so the Commonwealth put it off till next court.

—The widow House's nag broke into John Bourne's wheat a few days ago and he bent down a limb and tied a rope around the horse's nose, and the animal looked so high that it died with an uplifted countenance. A stack of dead geese was found in the same field. Beware of letting your stock on another man's wheat!

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength, and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 Wall Street, New York.

Worth Knowing.

Mr. W. H. Morgan, merchant, Lake City, Fla., was taken with a severe cold, attended with a distressing Cough and running into Consumption in its first stages. He tried many so called popular cough remedies and steadily grew worse. Was reduced in flesh, had difficulty in breathing and was unable to sleep. Finally tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and found immediate relief, and after using about a half dozen bottles found himself well and has had no return of the disease. No other remedy can show so grand a record of cures as Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Guaranteed to do just what is claimed for it—Trial bottle free at A. R. Penny's Drug Store.

Renews Her Youth.

Mrs. Phoebe Chesley, Peterson, Clay Co., Iowa tells the following remarkable story, the truth of which is vouched for by the residents of the town: "I am 73 years old, have been troubled with kidney complaint and lameness for many years; could not dress myself without help. Now I am free from pain and soreness and am able to do all my own housework. I owe my thanks to Electric Bitters for having renewed my youth and removed completely all disease and pain. Try a bottle, 50¢ and $1 at A. R. Penny's Drug Store."

W. P. WALTON.

The following very significant article appears in the Courier-Journal, which seems to have had a revelation: The course of Governor Buckner in opposing and defeating much vicious legislation has given him and the party of which he is the representative the confidence of the people to an unusual degree. This confidence should encourage our leaders in carrying the investigation of the State Treasurer to the utmost limit, leaving no secret unrevealed. The one thing the party can not afford to do is to shield or to seem to shield any man. It has not entered on a career of persecution, but of investigation, and this investigation must be thorough, rigid and unrelenting. The revelations will, we doubt not, be of a surprising character, showing a wide-spread and alarming disregard of the written law and of sound business principles. Many prominent politicians, many public officers and some zealous reformers have drawn on the State Treasurer as on a private bank, which never refused a draft or protested a note. The indulgence afforded by the treasurer may or may not have had the effect to stifle opposition or silence criticism, but whatever the motive of the borrower, the purpose of the genial gentlemen in charge of the State's affairs is plain enough at this time. The democratic party's future success depends on the thoroughness and the strict impartiality of this investigation. It must root out all existing abuses. It must reform altogether, prevalent business methods. In this way only can justice be done to the people and the schemes of our political opponents brought to naught. When the final report is made there will be weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth, but this report should be so clear and comprehensive that every man may know that the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth has been told.

A PHILADELPHIA paper figures that the democrats have a dead sure thing on 180 electoral votes and the republicans 182, with Indiana, Connecticut and New Jersey debatable ground. There are 401 electoral votes and it will require 201 to elect a president. The democrats, according to this calculation, only need 12 to secure a majority. If they get Indiana, which seems almost certain, her 15 votes will be three more than enough, or if they fail to carry Indiana and carry the other two with 6 and 9 votes respectively, there will still be three votes to spare. On the other hand the republicans will have to carry Indiana and one of the doubtful States to win. Even more hopeful is the Cincinnati Enquirer, which figures that the democrats will have 219 votes certain, while the republicans cannot bank on but 91. The same paper puts California, Colorado, Illinois, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, Nevada, Ohio, Oregon and Rhode Island, with an aggregate of 91 votes, in the list of doubtful States. This is entirely too rosy a view of the matter, but that the democracy will win and Cleveland succeed himself, we have no doubt.

The House Pension Committee has determined to report favorably the pauper pension bill as it passed the Senate, with an amendment which gives every Northern soldier a monthly pension of one cent for every day served in the war. The dependent pension bill is the one which Senators Beck, Vest and Blackburn denounced as involving $500,000,000 outlay and on which Ingalls made his effort. It is a monstrous raid, but it will no doubt be passed. God reigns, though, and the government at Washington still lives, with Grover Cleveland at its head ready to stand between the treasury and the coffee-coolers and bounty-jumpers.

Gov. BUCKNER having clubbed a number of their loaded bills, the Louisville delegation, which with perhaps one or two exceptions, is about as sorry a lot as the city could send, have gotten clean out with him and are disposed to fight him on every occasion. The board of trade of the city has already endorsed the noble old governor's vetoes, and to night a mass meeting of the citizens will say in thunder tones that its representatives are either too fresh or too venal for them.

AFTER spending five days discussing Gov. Buckner's suggestion for the appointment of a commission to make a thorough examination of all the public offices at Frankfort, the jackassical $5-a-day statesmen decided not to do so. The House, however, voted to prolong the session till May 4th, thus fulfilling our prediction before the assinine body met that the May flowers would bloom before it gave up its underhold on the treasury.

Gov. McCREARY made a very conclusive and exhaustive speech last week on his bill to establish a United States land court, and to provide for a judicial investigation and settlement of private land claims in the Territories of Arizona, New Mexico and in the State of Colorado. The court is only to last four years and those who know deem it of the greatest importance. The bill will likely become a law.

THE Kentucky counties are going right along instructing for Col. Bradley for vice-president and the prospect is that his State will endorse him for the position unanimously. Of course this is very gratifying to us, who have always stood by the gentleman from Garrard, and our thanks are due those who have so cordially adopted our suggestion to make him a candidate for the second place on the ticket.

SENATOR STANFORD, of California, is an announced candidate for the republican nomination for president. He will, however, fail to get there. No such decent and independent man as he will ever be placed at the head of the republican cohorts. He voted to confirm the rebel brigadier, Lucius Quintus Marcellus Lamar, and that damns him eternally with the party of the bloody shirt.

On the bill to refund the direct tax collected during the war the National House has been dead-locked since April 4th and it is still that day on the calendar. Some of the sessions have lasted all night long, nothing being done save the presentation of and action upon dilatory motions.

ROSCOE CONKLING will be perhaps the next distinguished man to be added to the fast growing necrology of 1888. He had an abscess inside of his skull, which was opened for the discharge of the pus. The operation was very successfully performed, but he is liable to die at any time.

GEN. GREEN CLAY SMITH has not accepted the prohibition nomination for Congressman in this district and the fact that he will take charge of the Baptist church at Mt. Sterling seems to give color to the impression that he will not. It's dollars to cents he will, however.

It is said that for several years the question of what to do with the ever accumulating surplus has worried the Brotherhood of Engineers. The Burlington strike seems to have solved it, at least the larger part of it has gone to help the strikers in their fight.

NEWS CONDENSED.

—The L. & N. lost $100,000 by the recent floods in the South.

—Kentucky Chautauqua will open July 6th at Woodland Park, Lexington.

—A bill making May 30th a legal holiday has passed both Houses of the legislature.

—Clande M. Johnson, of Kentucky, has been appointed Indian agent in Arizona.

—The report that Jay Gould was dead was a canard which is sprung every once and a while.

—Capt. Paul Boyton has started on a 1,000 mile swim from Wheeling, W. Va., down the Ohio River.

—Henry B. Lovering has been appointed U. S. marshal for Massachusetts, to succeed Gen. N. P. Banks.

—Lillian Olcott, the actress, died in New York from the effects of a cold contracted during the late blizzard.

—A special dispatch from Montevideo reports the loss of the steamer Rio Janeiro with 120 passengers on board.

—Miss Burdette, of Jessamine county, was bitten by a mad dog and the chances are that she will die from the effects.

—A Texas farmer stabbed his daughter 16 times, killing her instantly, because she married against his wishes.

—The president has nominated Brigadier General George Crook to be Major General, vice Alfred H. Terry retired.

—A stock company at Jersey City, N. J., with $1,000,000 capital, has been organized for the construction of air ships.

—The last of the Kansas breweries has been closed under the U. S. Supreme Court decision in the Ziebold & Hagelin case.

—The New York Tribune says the republican Senate shall not confirm Carlisle if the president appoints him Chief Justice.

—Todd county democrats heartily endorsed the administration of Cleveland and Buckner at a meeting held at Elkton Monday.

—John Vice, for total blindness, has just drawn a pension arrearage of $14,000 and will get $72 a month hereafter. He lives in Bath county.

—A democratic caucus Wednesday night decided that the dead-lock should be broken by a postponement of the direct tax bill to next December.

—Lead and silver mines in Scott which show properties of 70 per cent. of the former and 30 per cent. of the latter, are to be worked by a Louisville syndicate.

—The Supreme Court has decided that what is commonly known as the "Oleomargarine Act" is constitutional. Justice Harlan delivered the opinion, Justice Field dissenting.

—J. M. Thomas, of Paris, has resigned as commissioner of the branch penitentiary at Eddyville, because of the failure of the General Assembly to provide salaries for the commission.

—Mrs. E. L. Harper is conducting her husband's business while he is sojourning in the Ohio penitentiary, and is doing it well. She has just purchased a controlling interest in the Riverside Iron and Steel Works.

—A woman at Richmond, Mrs. Frances, says the Climax, is preaching that prophecy has been fulfilled and that the Savior is on earth, for she has just returned from Illinois, where she saw him. Mrs. Frances' place seems to be in the Lexington asylum.

—A Georgia man committed suicide by holding his breath until he was dead. This is the third case ever known of the kind.

—The members of the class of '87, Union Theological Seminary, are asked to send the annual class letter and 75 cents for printing to Alex W. Crawford, class secretary, Campbellsville, Ky.

—Mrs. J. W. Reynolds, of Las Vegas, N. M., was accidentally shot through the heart and killed by the discharge of her husband's revolver, which fell from his pocket while walking on the street.

—The State Normal School building at Terre Haute, Ind., was totally destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated at $240,000 and no insurance. Eight hundred pupils escaped from the burning building without injury.

—Blinkey Morgan, condemned to die for his participation in the murder of a detective, who ferreted out the big fur robbery at Cleveland in 1887, has been refused a new trial and sentenced to hang June 1st in the Ohio penitentiary.

—Gus Boepple committed suicide at Henderson by sending a bullet through his head. Dr. C. W. Chase, Chicago, goes to the other side by hanging himself with a handkerchief while under arrest for selling a robe supposed to have been stolen.

—There is little doubt that Hon. William L. Scott is slated for chairman of the Democratic National Committee. He will head the Pennsylvania delegation to the National Convention and will undoubtedly conduct the canvass for Mr. Cleveland's re-election.

—Gov. Buckner, of Kentucky, in a communication to the New York Tribune, says of local option in his State that in many localities it is beneficial, but it is a decided failure in others. In his opinion a high license is the best temperance law.—[Ex.]

—Because the contractors would not increase their wages from $1.25 to $1.50 per day, about a hundred of the men employed in the Tennessee end of Cumberland Gap Tunnel struck. Notices were posted in conspicuous places ordering that none of the men should work at the price paid, and furthermore, if they persisted in so doing they would be shot down in their tracks. The contractors secured a force of men and started them to work. No sooner had they begun when then the strikers fired on them with Winchester rifles and pistols and killed five of the number. The sheriff of Claiborne county, Tenn., has gone in search of the murderers.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—A little girl of W. A. Arnold is quite ill with pneumonia.

—Lancaster has five fish merchants. No wonder our people are brainy.

—Maria, a little girl of J. W. Griffin, has the pneumonia and is a very sick child.

—What has become of the Louisville Southern? It is time the locomotum was being heard.

—Overton Agee was married April 10 to Miss Ella May. The was aged 19 and the bride 13. All of this county.

—It begins to look like the K. C. will be the only railroad Lancaster will ever have. Let us have a bus line to Preachersville.

—Mrs. Lucinda Greenleaf, who was so badly injured by a fall recently, is very low and fears are entertained as to her recovery.

—Grover Cleveland and Simon Bolivar Buckner would make a good team to carry the old democratic ship to a safe harbor.

—The villain who called our home paper the "K. C. News" had best keep out of Mr. Hughes' way, as Dawson has blood in his eye.

—The Till Family will give a concert at the opera house here Saturday evening, April 14. Proceeds for the benefit of the W. C. T. U.

—When the Louisville Southern is opened from Harrodsburg to Louisville, Lancaster will have another express line to Louisville—the United States.

—A Knights of Pythias lodge will be established here about the 23d instant. There will be not less than three lodges in attendance, and a big time is expected.

—W. S. Ferguson went to Covington Tuesday. Uncle Jordan Perkins is still very low. Dr. Wm. Jennings and John E. Greenleaf, of Richmond, were here Wednesday.

—John Bourne was tried in the police court Wednesday for tying and maiming a horse belonging to Mrs. Sutton and held to the circuit court in the sum of $50. Bond was readily furnished.

—Twenty-four dogs were in sight on the square in Lancaster this morning. This would be a good place for Pasteur to locate. Four-fifths of our citizens are certain to have hydrophobia this summer.

—The Glee Club, consisting of four young men of Kentucky University at Lexington, will give a concert at the opera house here Friday evening, April 27, for the benefit of the Home Missionary Society. These young gentlemen sang here last Christmas and gave great satisfaction to their hearers.

—Having only part of a railroad, Lancaster can boast of six daily mails, two express companies, two daily stages to Danville, one to Stanford, one so Nicholasville and a tri-weekly to Buckeye. There is but one thing that can prevent a citizen of this goodly town going where he pleases and that is the almighty dollar.

DANVILLE, BOYLE COUNTY.

—Sells Bros' circus and menagerie is billed for Danville May 3d.

—A little child of Mrs. Iva Yeiser is reported by Dr. McMurtry as very ill with pneumonia.

—The meeting at the Methodist church still continues. There have been two additions up to the present.

—Col. Charles E. Bowman, ex-commissioner of agriculture, died at Frankfort this, Thursday, morning.

—License for the marriage of R. T. Overstreet and Janie E. Clarkson was issued by the county clerk on the 7th inst.

—Mr. Thomas Middleton, from Harrodsburg, succeeds L. C. Alcorn as telegraph operator. The latter has removed to Greensburg.

—W. B. Moore has made an assignment to his brother, Robert Moore, for the benefit of his creditors. Assets and liabilities unknown.

—Wm. Robinson was before the police court Thursday morning for a breach of the peace and James Welsh for injuring property belonging to another person.

—C. S. Jackson, administrator of the late Dr. T. W. Jackson, will sell the personalty belonging to the estate on Saturday, the 21st inst., beginning at 1:30 o'clock P. M.

—The portion of human remains found on McClenden's ridge, in Pulaski county, turns out to be what is left of two peddlers, whom the Hill brothers and their housekeeper murdered and cut up for hog food. The woman has made a confession and says that the men got $200.

LEGISLATIVE DOINGS.

—A bill entitled "An act to provide for the punishment of petit larceny in Calloway county," has been offered by Senator Rigney.

—Senator Rigney has offered the following: A bill to repeal an act, entitled "An act to provide for repairing and keeping in repair the public roads in Lincoln county," approved February 24, 1888.

—Colston, the upstartish member from Bell county, and Cox, of Wayne, came near shooting at one another Wednesday. We suppose that if they begin killing each other off we shall in the hazy future be rid of the body.

—Lawyer Davison, who also aspires to statesmanship as well, has been trying to have the legislature adjourn till next November after it concludes its present grind, but his proposition was voted down 19 to 43. Davison is not a Solomon, as every one knows, but he has gumption enough to discern a good thing when he has it and therefore wants to hang on till the cows come home. He has the softest snap he ever had or ever will have again and he will give it up like parting with an arm or a leg. The poor fellow is to be pitied more than condemned, however.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Evangelist Cobb's meeting at Main Street Christian church, Lexington, continues, with about 70 additions.

—A month from last Wednesday the Southern Baptist Convention meets at the First church, Richmond, Va. It is claimed that the convention represents 1,000,000 church members.

—Rev. H. T. Daniels has had to resign the pastorate of the Baptist church at Glasgow on account of failing health. His physicians say that six months' rest may restore him sufficiently to begin preaching again.

—Rev. W. C. Young, of the Central Presbyterian church of Louisville, has received a call from the First Presbyterian church (Walnut Hills) of Cincinnati, at a salary of $6,000 a year. He was called last year by the Centre College, of Danville, to assume the duties of its president, a position which his distinguished father first held, but declined.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—More horse ads. See O. J. Crow's in regard to his horse and jack.

—A half million dollars worth of stallions were exhibited at Lexington Monday, horse show day.

—Lambs are quoted in Cincinnati at 8 to 11 cents; cattle at 1 1/2 to 4 1/2 and hogs at 3 to 5.00 and all fairly active.

—J. C. Johnson bought of D. B. Stagg, Jr., his lot of lambs, to be delivered about the 10th of June, at 5 cts.

—D. B. Stagg, Jr., sold to Thomas C. Robinson 14 hogs, weighing about 200 pounds, for June delivery, at 5 cts.

—The William Anson Wood Mower and Reaper works at Youngstown, Ohio, burned yesterday morning. Loss $250,000 and 500 men thrown out of work.

—Wakefield, Moreland & Co. have sold to Louisville parties 82 cattle to be delivered on June 10 at 4 1/2 and 5 cents per pound. These are the cattle that are being fed at the Wiley Seary distillery.—[Danville Advocate.]

—In our horse columns this issue will be found the advertisements of Bryan, 6,480 and Ringold, by Metropolitan, dam Joette. These horses are owned by W. S. Wigham, who resides near Moreland, and who will gladly give further information of them if desired.

—John Y. Myers is as happy as a young husband is over his first baby. The reason is that his fine black mare by Lincoln Chief has dropped a beautiful dark bay horse colt, by Gambetta. The promising youngster has been named Robert Harding, in honor of Danville's splendid young lawyer.

The Masonic Lodge has received its magic lantern and paraphernalia for a better conferring of the degrees and they will be used at the regular meeting next Monday night. The old Masons who have not been in a lodge for some time ought to be on hand and get warmed over in the cause.

FISH STORY.—Messrs. Smith Irwin, W. F. Packard and J. B. Owens are back from the Cumberland river, where they caught in one day 82 bass, weighing from one to three pounds. Mr. Packard is our authority for the number of fish and those who are the least bit doubtful as to the truth of the statement can satisfy themselves by calling on Mr. P., who has preserved the heads and tails of each one of them.

NEW GOODS FOR THE THOUSANDS.—The well-known firm of S. L. Powers & Co., of this place, opened an immense stock of goods in Lancaster, Ky., Thursday of this week. They are live-business men and will make things hot in their line. They have just opened out in their new double store, on opposite side of their old stand, in Stanford, where they are carrying an immense stock and will be pleased to meet all their old customers and friends.

The editor went to Louisville Tuesday intending to represent the great county of Lincoln in the prohibition convention but when he learned that Mrs. Nield would oppose his favorite hobby to let the short-haired, pantalotted old maids crowd up to the polls and vote, he knew it would be useless for him to attempt to stem the current her eloquence would produce, so he returned yesterday in disgust. Another reason was that Book Beer was ripe and he was afraid that he might be tempted like some of the other weak-kneed brethren. He saw Mr. W. R. Veach though, and he promised to hold Lincoln county down.

STRANGE BUT TRUE.—Mr. L. G. Gooch, our good friend at Waynesburg, sends us the following: A rather remarkable death occurred in this neighborhood last Sunday at 8 o'clock a. m., at the house of Samuel Dishons. Just 12 months from the day above mentioned one of his little boys was kicked by a horse and was thought by the physician to be fatally injured. However, after a long time, the boy to all appearances recovered and went about the farm work with his other brothers. About two weeks since he was taken suddenly ill with the same symptoms that he complained with when first hurt. The boy grew worse every day, until Sunday morning at 8 o'clock, just one year to an hour, when he died.

SEVERAL nights ago a couple of young society gentlemen of about 16 summers started out to see some of Stanford's female beauty, thinking that the father of the young ladies they were to call on was away from home. Nothing of unusual importance happened on the road, save they had talked in gleeful terms of what an elegant evening they were going to spend, until these initiators of Oscar Wilde reached their destination. A ring of the door bell brought to the door, not the young ladies, but the old gentleman himself, who had come home in the meantime. The boys, scared nearly out of their wits by his august appearance, stood dumbfounded. Growing tired of waiting to see what they wanted, the gentleman of the house invited them to walk in and stay till they could think of what they came for. After sitting in a thinking attitude for half an hour or more one of the boys summoned courage enough to mumble out that he wished to see the old gentleman's son, a boy of their own age, and with this young gentleman our courting friends passed the evening.

An elegant new line of pants patterns and cassimeres for spring and summer just received. Owsley & Craig.

The rain of Monday was succeeded by a slight cold wave Tuesday. It was chilly yesterday, with indications for slowly rising temperature.

We will have our opening on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 26, 27 and 28, and cordially invite all the ladies to be present. Courts & Cox.

A GENTLEMAN residing here saw the Till Family Concert Company at the Grand Opera House in Cincinnati and pronounced it an elegant as well as a wonderful entertainment. See them at Walton's Opera House to-night.

The Galt House, Louisville, has no superior anywhere in these parts and considering its prices run from $2.50 to $4 a day, it is the cheapest. Manager A. R. Cooper and Chief Clerk T. A. Mulligan, are cleverness exemplified and make all who stop at the famous hotel to feel at home.

I HAVE been to Louisville and Cincinnati and bought my stock of spring and summer millinery. I will have an elegant stock of everything in my line and ask all the ladies to call in and examine. Will let my patrons know later as to date of my summer opening. Mrs. Kate Dunderar.

It was all a joke about Bright Ferrell wanting to be marshal. He only wanted to worry Pete Hampton. It was said yesterday that George S. Carpenter stood the best show, but Newland was industriously circulating a petition, which was being signed by the best people, asking that he be retained.

The Saxton National Bank at St. Joe, Mo., which a year or so ago got a little shaky and caused many of the stockholders here to sell out, declared a quarterly dividend of 2 1/2 per cent. on the 31st. Its loans and discounts amount to $1,031,583.89; its surplus to $50,000 and its deposits to $1,605,691.52. J. W. McAlister is cashier.

JOHN H. CRAIG & SON, Stanford, Ky., have opened a fashionable merchant tailoring department, in connection with their business to manufacture here men's fine suits, under the management of A. W. Barker, formerly of Danville, Ky., to be assisted later by a New York artist. Customers have the privilege of having suits cut and made here, or by Browning, King & Co., New York, or Wanamaker & Brown, Philadelphia, at popular prices, with about 1,000 foreign and American fabrics to select from. Quality, style and fit guaranteed, or no sale.

An attempt is being made by H. J. Darrst and others to establish another school district, which will take in Rowland and the East End of Stanford from Logan Avenue down. Those interested claim that the new school building was put so far in the West End that their children cannot attend and they propose to tax themselves sufficiently to build a school-house and run a school nine months in the year. There is some kicking both at this end and the other. It is a little hard on this end, after they have paid taxes to secure the present building.

CIRCUIT COURT.—In the case of J. M. Wray against the Stanford & Hustonville Turnpike Co., for $3,000 damages, Judge Morrow gave peremptory instructions for the defendant.

W. B. Wright, who was injured by a train on the Cincinnati Southern, in 1886, got a verdict Wednesday for $1,000 damages. E. E. Wright vs. Richard Burnett, decided in favor of defendant. S. E. Owsley vs. Jerry and Harry Engleman, judgment against the former only.

James Beazley sued the L. & N. for $250 for killing a horse, which was valued at that sum. The case was tried yesterday, when Judge Morrow decided that there was not sufficient evidence to show that the killing was through negligence, and peremptorily instructed the jury to find a verdict for half the amount, that being the sum for which a road is liable where it is not fenced in. The costs were equally divided. On the strength of this, Jack Beazley compromised on $100 for the crippling of his horse.

The long pending case of Henry Baughman vs. M. C. Portman to force the contract entered into by the latter to pay $750 a year for ten years for the Portman Hotel, was decided yesterday by Judge Morrow, who gave judgment against the defendant for $55 balance due on rent for 1886, and ordered that the contract be cancelled from January 1, 1887. The suit grew out of the adoption of prohibition here. Portman claimed that but for the right to sell liquor in the house he would not have made such a contract and that it was so understood. On the 1st of January, 1887, Portman notified Baughman that he would not pay any rent after that date, but would claim pay for remaining and taking care of the joint property. Mr. Baughman will take the case to a higher court.

The motion for a new trial in the Bank-Hubbe case was overruled by the Judge yesterday.

The suit of Higgins vs. the Town of Crab Orchard, which has been to the Court of Appeals once or twice, was on trial last evening. It is for damages sustained by reason of a house belonging to the plaintiff being set on fire and burned, because it was alleged it was used for immoral purposes.

NOTICE!

TO THE CITIZENS OF LINCOLN COUNTY.

Having recently equipped a fine Roller Mill in the town of Stanford that we defy any Mill to equal in quality of flour, we think the citizens of the county should have county pride enough to patronize and sustain the same. We wish to inform whom it may concern that we are in the market to buy your wheat and corn and will always give the highest market price for same. We have added some new machinery to our corn meal department and can now make meal to suit any person. It cannot be equalled by any other flour in this vicinity. We solicit a trial in our flour and meal department. All having grain in our line for sale will please call at the Mill, where our agent will be found at all times, who will give the best prices for same. Bran and shipstuffs always in stock. W. N. POTTS, 231 1/2 Supt., Stanford Roller Mill Co.

NOTICE OF INCORPORATION.

The undersigned, Harvey Floyd, E. S. Gooch, Major T. Reynolds, L. G. Gooch, W. H. Miller, E. B. Caldwell, Jr., J. S. Young, have associated themselves together to be incorporated as a stock company under the corporate name of the Highland and Waynesburg Turnpike Road Company.

The business to be conducted is the building, maintaining and conducting of a McAdams turnpike road from the present terminus of the Stanford and Hills Co. turnpike in Lincoln county, Ky., through Highland and Waynesburg precincts to the Pulaski county line, or a part of such named turnpike.

The corporation shall commence on the 13th day of May, 1888, and terminate on the 13th day of May, 1893.

The authorized capital stock is to be twenty thousand dollars, which shall be paid at such times and in such amounts, and upon such terms as the Board of Directors shall prescribe.

The affairs of the corporation are to be managed by a board of five directors, one of whom shall be selected as president by the board; and such directors shall be elected on the first Saturday in June of each year and shall serve for one year next ensuing their election. Said board shall also elect a clerk and treasurer.

The highest amount of indebtedness to which this corporation may at any time subject itself shall not exceed one thousand dollars.

The private property of the stockholders shall be exempt from the corporate debts.

L. G. Gooch, M. T. Reynolds, E. S. Gooch, Harvey Floyd, W. H. Miller, E. B. Caldwell, Jr., J. S. Young

MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—Mrs. Charles Hensley died Monday of heart disease.

—Wm. Cummins, of Mareburg, has a 10-pound girl to board.

—Wm. Harrison, aged 70, was married Friday to Mary L. McClure.

—Susie Mullins, aged 11, died at Orlando last week of typhoid fever.

—J. Carpenter, of Horse Lick, had a young responsibility sworn to his charge here Monday.

—Dr. Lovell is experimenting with the product of an ocher he lately discovered in this county. It is believed the mine will prove to be valuable.

—Fred Mahaffey's stable was struck by lightning last Thursday night and destroyed. The evening before when he attempted to drive a fine young horse that had been kept in the stable during the winter into the building it persistently refused to enter, thereby saving itself for a future stroke.

—Uncle Johnny Mize, aged 85, who left this county 47 years ago and lately returned on a visit, being unable to persuade some widow to keep house for him, has concluded not to purchase a farm just yet, but will pay Missouri another visit before settling down here. C. A. Redd has sold 2,500 acres lying just east of Livingston to the Kentucky Land Company at $2 per acre. Adam Catron sold his Level Green farm to his father for $1,600 and bought the Baker farm on Buck Creek for $4,500.

—C. W. Adams is on the river fishing. Charles Stewart, of Toledo, Ohio, is visiting friends in Louisville. Willis Adams is in Louisville. Miss Nora Maret, of Berea, is visiting here. Miss Alma Carson, of Brodhead, was here Wednesday. Mr. J. W. Riley and wife, of Cincinnati, have taken rooms at the Newcomb Hotel. Conductor Charles Cameron, after trying the West for three years has returned to the L. & N., and says he proposes to remain in Kentucky. Richard Williams, for some months a compositor in the Signal office at this place, has accepted a position with a wholesale saddlery house, Cincinnati. Judge Fish is some better. Mrs. W. H. Albright accompanied by her mother, Mrs. A. Lykins, and children left Tuesday for Colorado. Miss Ella Joplin left Tuesday for Ash Grove, Mo., on a visit.

A Fable.

An owl and a crane upon a time once occupied the same grove. They were the statesmen of the woodland and were held in great esteem by the pebbles of all the hollow, and both had been trusted with high positions of state and authority, but it came to pass that a feeling grew between them which had to their constituency and followers much the appearance of exalted jealousy. One great achievement of the owl was delivering a satirical oration (said to have been borrowed of a chattering jay), in opposition to a national highway entering a distant forest. He was decidedly vs. such progress was would intrude on woodland silence. And so fatal was the oration (whether borrowed or not) to the enterprise that it was immediately consigned to the "potters' field," and so elated were the followers of the owl that they, not content that he already filled a high station in political importance, held a caucus and determined to place the government of the hollow in his hands, which they soon did. But the sequel was that the less favored crane, who, watching from a distance, was ireful, the fire of some birds becomes very intense when goodly distance insures safety. And the crane ostensibly sending congratulations to Andy Blackbird, so worded his epistle by intimating that many severe showers had caused gulleys and "ruts" to wash deeply, which thro' criminal negligence and inefficiency in the administration of Mr. Owl were getting worse instead of better. And made it plain that he, the crane, was the bird to remedy all the known evils and more. Then the dell, through the wide-spread tidings, (spread by a carrier pigeon) grew noisy. The owl hooted and whooped as was never heard before, and while he made the feathers fly from the crane, the crane picked the ears of the owl warmly. So it came to pass that the other birds all enjoyed the tussle and by little attention found so many facts concerning both owl and crane by each exposed on the other, detrimental to their statesmanship, that neither owl nor crane could catch the Senatorial bee; nor would the birds of the dell trust either to govern them, and called a soldier bird who had lain aside his uniform and epaulettes, who to the great joy of his followers has begun the reform the owl failed to see needed "under his nose" and the crane whets his Reported beak; and the crows are wild because of a hole in the ground.

—Mayor Roche, of Chicago, has notified the proprietors of 210 saloons that they are on the black list and will be refused licenses in the future.

—A 13-year-old boy of Jeffersonville, Indiana, committed suicide by hanging himself, because his parents persisted in sending him to school against his wishes.

Dynamite is the most deadly of all explosives, and cholera was sure death to chickens until the discovery of Garter's chicken cholera cure. It is sold on the "no-cure-no-pay" plan by McRoberts & Stagg.
